We created this video in partnership with Unlikely Collaborators. Three doctors break down Reframe Your Thoughts to Overcome FEAR When a simple glass jar becomes the centerpiece of a mentalâ€training routine, seasoned hobbyists discover a concrete method to reframe anxiety and convert it into actionable insight. The technique, rooted in visual metaphor and incremental exposure, offers a repeatable path from recognizing a fear to reshaping the narrative around it. Imagine a clear, sealed container on your workbench. Its transparency mirrors the clarity you aim to achieve when confronting a fear. By placing a written noteâ€each line a specific worryâ€inside the jar, you externalize the thought, making it an object you can manipulate rather than an abstract mental fog. Write the fear on a small piece of paper;
