Getting started requires only a smartphone and the university's official map app. Follow these three steps: Identify anchor locations. Pin your most frequented spots—such as the Morgan Library, the Engineering Lab, and the campus coffee hub. Schedule micro-sessions. Assign a 45-minute study slot around each anchor, then use the app's "reminder" feature to cue you when you're within a five-minute radius. Link related tasks. Pair each location with a specific goal (e.g., "review notes on renewable energy at the Morgan Library") so the map becomes a reminder, not just a navigation tool.
